

Date: 09-01-2017

The space frame over the Samvad area frames a central congregation space. In addition to creating an aspirational gesture, it also draws inspiration from the tradition in Gujarat of flying kites during Uttarayan (Makar Sankranti). The pattern is an interpretation of kites of different colours dominating the sky.